strategic foresight + innovation

Foresight Consulting Internship

SUMMARY OF POSITION

We are now seeking an ambitious intern to help us build foresight capabilities for leading global organizations.

Interns are fully integrated team members and support our consultants in the development of foresight solutions for our international clients. As part of a forward-thinking, highly motivated and international team of consultants and analysts, you will apply innovation and foresight methodologies, business and strategy development practices and be involved in presenting results of analysis and solutions to clients. In addition, we offer you the opportunity to work independently on smaller, self-contained internal projects.

KEY TASKS & RESPONSIBILITIES

As an intern at Rohrbeck Heger, you will be responsible for:

- Supporting our consultants in preparing customized foresight solutions for clients
- Preparing and supporting the facilitation and post-processing of client workshops
- Diving into new topics, themes, and industries to synthesize comprehensive, yet lean overviews and summaries thereof, e.g. in the form of trend cards or technology one-pagers or presentations
- Application of analytical and creative management and strategy techniques, e.g. scenario-based strategizing, roadmapping, business model design

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS & EXPERIENCE

- Preferably academic background in economics, business informatics, industrial engineering, management (esp. strategy and innovation), future studies or similar. (Master students preferred)
- Strong analytical and research skills
- Very good communication skills – verbally and in writing
- Ideally past experience in a consulting firm
- Good knowledge of MS Office
- Very good language skills in German and English (C2)

WHAT WE OFFER

- A dynamic and exciting work environment where you will help define the future for our customers
- An attractive working environment in a strong international team in Berlin
- Enjoy the flexibility and opportunities of a start-up like environment while benefitting from our proven thought leadership in foresight and excellent track record in delivering consulting projects to some of the world's leading organizations
- Possible further employment in our growing company
- Support for and/or integration of Bachelor or Master theses possible if suitable with project scope

SUBMISSION & CONTACT

The current opening is for a full-time position with a possible start from July, 2021.

We offer internships with a minimum duration of 3 months.

If you would like to be considered for this position, please email us your CV and provide answers to the following questions:

- What is the most exciting thing about the future? Why?
- What sparked your interest in foresight?
