

FORESIGHT CONSULTING INTERN

SUMMARY OF POSITION

We are seeking for an ambitious intern to help us build foresight capabilities for leading global organizations.

Interns are fully integrated team members and support our consultants in the development of foresight solutions for our international clients. As part of a forward-thinking, highly motivated and international team of consultants and analysts, you will apply innovation and foresight methodologies, business and strategy development practices and be involved in presenting results of analysis and solutions to clients. In addition, we offer you the opportunity to work independently on smaller, self-contained internal projects.

KEY TASKS & RESPONSIBILITIES

As an intern at Rohrbeck Heger, you will be responsible for:

- Supporting our consultants in preparing customized foresight solutions for clients
- Preparing and supporting the facilitation and post-processing of client workshops
- Diving into new topics, themes, and industries to synthesize comprehensive, yet lean overviews and summaries thereof, e.g. in the form of trend cards or technology one-pagers or presentations
- Application of analytical and creative management and strategy techniques, e.g. scenario-based strategizing, roadmapping, business model design

SKILLS & EXPERIENCE

- Preferably academic background in economics, business informatics, industrial engineering, management (esp. strategy and innovation), future studies or similar (Master's students preferred)
- Strong analytical and research skills
- Excellent communication skills – verbally and in writing
- Ideally experience in a consulting firm
- Good knowledge of MS Office
- Excellent language skills in English (German is a plus)

WHAT WE OFFER

- A dynamic and exciting work environment where you will help define the future for our customers
- An attractive working environment in a strong international team in Berlin
- Enjoy the flexibility and opportunities of a start-up like environment while benefitting from our proven thought leadership in foresight and excellent track record in delivering consulting projects to some of the world's leading organizations
- Possible further employment in our growing company

SUBMISSION & CONTACT

- The current opening is for a full-time position (30-40 hrs/week) in a hybrid work model (Berlin + remote).
- We offer paid internships with a minimum duration of 6 months.
- If you would like to be considered for this position, please email us your CV and provide answers to the following questions:
 - What is the most exciting thing about the future? Why?
 - What sparked your interest in foresight?
 - How does your experience contribute to foresight consulting?
